

Isaiah 53:4-6

Starter

In his message, Pastor Ken spoke of encountering broken items in our lives. When we encounter them we have two choices—fix them, or call someone to fix them. Describe a time when something broke and what choice did you make and why?

The passage we are going to study today was written roughly 500 years before Jesus was even born. Isaiah was a prophet which means that God revealed special truth to him that he shared with the people of his day. When he shared this word he was outlining what the nation needed to look for while anticipating their messiah, their savior.
